TELL ME - SOJA

From the very first time I saw you
I felt my whole life and it was all new
I felt my knees get weak, my heart went crazy
I felt some yes and no I even felt some maybe
I'd climb a mountain top, I'd swim the ocean too
Get down on my knees only if it was for you
I think that I would do about anything
You're in my dreams and in the song I sing

Come on and tell me, tell me, tell me anything
And I will believe you
Tell me, tell me, tell me not to go
And I will never leave you (yeah)
Tell me, tell me, tell me I'm yours
Tell me that you're the same
Oh tell me, tell me, tell me, tell me anything

I've seen so many girls, I've heard so many lines
And once or twice I thought that one of them was mine
Well how it always goes and how it's always been
I start to think that we'd be better off if we were friends
But there's a new turn, yeah there's a new twist
I know I said before that I just couldn't handle this
I'm not the type to write you love songs
So it'd help if somebody sang along

And said tell me, tell me, tell me anything
I will believe you
Tell me, tell me, tell me not to go
I will never leave you
Tell me, tell me, tell me I'm yours
Tell me that you're the same (yeah)
Tell me, tell me, tell me, tell me anything

(Tell Me.... Anything..... Anything. Oh anything.... Yeah)

From the very first time I saw you
There was something different and it was all new
It's in the way you move and how you look at me
Like being stuck on you is something I'm supposed to be
And that's okay too and if you feel the same
Then we can trade looks, baby we can trade names
And we can look back down that damn road
And you can say 'member how the song goes

It goes tell me, tell me, tell me anything
And I will believe you
Tell me, tell me, tell me not to go
And I will never leave you (yeah)
Tell me, tell me, tell me I'm yours
And tell me, tell me that you're the same
Just Tell me, just tell me, anything

Tell me... Anything... Anything.... Anything...
